Continuing Law Enforcement Education (CLEE) Frequently Asked Questions

Question	Answer
How does an officer receive credit for a MPOETC-approved CLEE course?	It is the responsibility of the police department chief or his/her designee to data enter MPOETC-approved CLEE courses into their officers' training records in MPOETC'S web-based Training And Certification System (TACS). That is how officers will be credited for their participation. Training providers are to maintain the signed CLEE roster containing the names of Act 120 certified officers who completed their agency's training in case MPOETC or a police chief would need verification of attendance. Also, if a training provider distributes a certificate to the officers who attended their CLEE course, officers can then provide that information to their chiefs as well, as further proof of their attendance.
What's the approval lifespan for a MPOETC-approved CLEE course?	Most CLEE courses are valid for one full year. Expired courses are removed from the MPOETC Approved CLEE Courses document on the website. Some CLEE courses are approved for more than one year and remain on the approved courses document. To make sure a course is still approved, check the MPOETC Approved CLEE Courses document often.
Can a CLEE course be taken in one year and then applied to another year? For example, if a CLEE course was taken in 2019 can it be used for make-up training in 2018, or used towards the 2020 training requirement?	No. CLEE courses will count toward required training hours ONLY in the year they are taken. CLEE courses may not be taken to make up missed hours for previous years and cannot be taken and saved for future training year requirements. In cases where officers are missing training hours for previous years, they MUST complete the MPOETC-developed MIST online courses on the PAVTN.net.
